He was the only son of Lois Paschall and Thomas E. Bradbury Sr and was 90 years old. He is preceded in death by his parents and his two sisters Joyce and Martha Jo and a nephew John Holder. He is survived by his wife of 68 years Fritzie Yount Bradbury; two children Ellen Bradbury of Franklin and Paul (Janice) Bradbury of Greenbrier; two grandsons Brad Johnson and Tommy Bradbury; much-loved nieces and nephews; and a very special grand-dog Fritz. A bird hunter car lover pool shark in retirement and a die-hard Alabama fan he played football for Litton before joining the Army serving his country in World War II in the Philippines and Japan. A management retiree of BellSouth he was a long time Pioneer team leader. Most of all he was a generous and often anonymous donor to many individuals and nonprofits. He lived frugally choosing to help others instead. He was a charter member of Dalewood Baptist Church serving as a deacon for many years. He loved his family and was a role model in how he lived his life and cared for our mother. Arthritis crippled his body but he soldiered on through the pain never complaining. His quick wit and sharp mind were with him to the end. We would like to thank Dr. Thomas Johnston and his team at Centennial Heart the caring staff at Willowbrook Hospice and special caregivers Jill and Melissa. He loved the Lord and was ready to "get on the bus" to Heaven to be with his family. We will miss our husband

Deceased BESS DAWSON PEARSALL
2013-11-28 Age 89
Nashville TN

Bess Dawson Pearsall age 89 passed away on the 28th of November 2013. She was born on the 31st of October 1924 to the late James H. and Ruth H. Dawson in Nashville TN. She is preceded in death by her parents; her husband Robert (Bob) R. Pearsall; brothers Tom Dawson and Bob Dawson. She is survived by her nieces Debbie Shelton Dottie Dawson and Pam Dawson (and Gil Gibbs); her nephews Jay Dawson (and Cindy) and Hank Dawson; her cousins Bob Duncan Eddie Teague Tommy Teague Melissa Albert and their families. Bess and Bob were wed on the 11th of March 1944 in Jackson MS. Though they had no children of their own they were beloved by their nieces and nephews and countless "adopted children" whose lives they powerfully influenced. Their home was the gathering place for family and friends at the annual Christmas "tree raising" and countless other special occasions. During their 53 years of marriage Bess and Bob (known as "Pearsall") together were considered by many to be mentors and models in career and family life. Bess proudly served as Clinic Manager of Sayers Duncan & Stevens medical practice for many years. She also served as Credit Manager of Kabinart Corporation. Bess and Bob were avid global travelers known for planning their next grand excursion while still recovering from the last one. They also loved to garden and took great satisfaction and enjoyment in keeping a beautiful yard and enjoying the wonders of God's creation. The family wishes to thank Bess' caregiver Sara Yarbrough; devoted friend and neighbor Delmas Odil; friend and hairdresser Sarah Jane with whom Bess had a standing Friday appointment; the Alive Hospice caregivers; and the many friends and neighbors who showed such kindness to Bess during her final months. A graveside service will be held at Woodlawn Memorial Park at eleven o'clock on the morning of Monday the 2nd of December 2013. The family will receive friends at Woodlawn-Roesch-Patton Funeral Home two hours prior to the service.

JAMES SAMUEL WORLEY

2003-07-26 Age 77
Nashville TN

James S. Worley who helped make Vanderbilt University an internationally known name by mentoring hundreds of foreign government officials in the ways of economic development died Saturday after an illness. He was 77. Mr. Worley taught economics at Vanderbilt for 30 years. For a quarter-century from 1961 - 1988 he directed the university's Graduate Program in Economic Development. The program the oldest of its kind in the United States brought officials and university professors from developing nations to Nashville to study for master's degrees in economics. When they returned to their countries many received promotions and a few became directors of their nations central banks the equivalent of this country's Federal Reserve. Mr. Worley worked with more than 900 government officials and academics from 92 countries during his tenure. Andrea Maneschi who has taught economics at Vanderbilt since 1970 said Mr. Worley made the students feel at home and made the university look good abroad. "He was more than a mentor" said Maneschi who served two stints as the economic development programs acting director. "He was really a friend to them and almost a father figure.... He really projected Vanderbilts image overseas with this program " Mr. Worley a Birmingham AL native who earned bachelors and master's degrees from Vanderbilt is survived by his wife Rosemary and four children: Paul Worley Marian Worley Watson and Susan Morley Meador all of Nashville and Sam Worley of Chicago. Visitation will be 4 - 7 p.m. today and 10 a.m. tomorrow at Belle Meade United Methodist Church. A memorial service will be held at the church at 11 am. tomorrow.
