ANNE COOPER LORD

DECEASED

2004-12-10 - Age 90

Limington, ME

Anne Cooper Lord, 90, formerly of Concord, died Friday, Dec. 10, 2004, at home after a long illness. She was born March 22, 1914, in Nashville, TN. the oldest of five children of Edwin W. and Hattie (Barnett) Cooper. She attended Nashville public and private schools. At Isaac Litton High School in Nashville, she was active in tennis and dramatics, president of the Glee Club, and co-captain of the basketball team. After high school, she received separate scholarships in basketball and opera, and she studied opera for a short time in New York City. She worked at National Life and Accident Insurance in Nashville for three years before joining American Airlines as an assistant to the Nashville Reservation and Ticket Manager. She loved her work in America during wartime, an exciting and important time in the fledgling airline industry. Through duties at Nashville Airport, she met her future husband Ned, who was stationed at adjoining Berry Field. They were married in Nashville on Oct. 17, 1945. Over the next 55 years, she made happy and beautiful homes for her husband and children in Elmsford, N.Y., and Hingham, Mass. Winchester Mass. Upper Montclair N.J. Towson Md. Limington, Maine, and Concord. She and Ned moved to Concord in 1996 and lived at Havenwood-Heritage Heights Retirement Center. Her many natural gifts that inspired her husband and children included a musician's appreciation of melody and harmony, an artist's discernment of good form and design, and a scientist's curiosity about biology, astronomy, and the next frontier. She was loved and admired for her inner and outer beauty, vivacious manner, independent spirit, kindness, patience, sense of humor, courage, and Southern charm. She always had a way of turning the spotlight from herself to the other person, although her inner glow warmed everyone coming near. Enthusiastically, she would say, "Hello, darlin!" And one would feel safe and loved.

Herman A Rippy Sr of Nashville, TN, passed away on October 12, 1986. He was preceded in death by his Parents, Harvey and Annie Rippy, wife of 30 years, Zoe Evelyn Crunk Rippy, and sisters Blanch Matthews and Isabelle Cline. Survived by wife Ann Welburn Rippy, daughter Beverly Willis (Phillip) Nashville, TN, sons H. A. Jr. (Jo Ann) Mobile, AL and Nolan (Kathy) Nashville, TN, stepdaughters Sherrill Trotter (Irby) and Rene Walker (David) of Nashville, TN, three grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, three step-grandchildren. Orphaned at age 10, he was raised in the Masonic Home, located on the grounds of the old TB Hospital in Inglewood, and could practically be seen from his backyard on Horseshoe Drive. He enjoyed visiting that area in later years. He was in the first graduating class of Isaac Litton High School in 1932. He was an excellent salesman and sold cars for several years, including at the first Crosley dealership in Nashville, TN. He worked for WNAH radio and had his own program, known as Daddy Rabbit, featuring local aspiring singers and Stringbean of the Grand Ole Opry. He was an accomplished musician himself, playing a variety of instruments. He finished his working career with Loyal American Life Insurance Co. but never really retired from working part-time until his death. Licensed by Inglewood Baptist Church, he preached in a small church built next to his home, where he held a final bible study class only five days before his passing. Funeral services were held at Phillips-Robinson, and he is buried in Spring Hill Cemetery.

DECEASED

2011-04-20 - Age 100

Nashville, TN

Claude W Shaffer, age 100, passed peacefully on Wednesday evening, April 20, 2011. He was one of seven children born to Josiah and Irma Shaffer. Claude Shaffer had a remarkable life and successful career at the E. Gray Smith Packard Company. Generous, sharp-witted, independent, and opinionated, Claude was a true gentleman. He's on record saying The whole Packard business was based on Quality, Respect, Trust, and Service. We were very considerate. We took good care of our people. He certainly did. To many current Packard owners and enthusiasts nationwide, Claude Shaffer represented the last direct connection with the 1930s Packard Motorcar Company Service operation. Characteristically, Mr. Shaffer, at age 100, was still offering sound Packard Automobile service advice as recently as one week ago. Claude Shaffer will be loved, missed, and remembered long into the future. Mr. Shaffer was predeceased by his wife, Dorothy (Smith) Shaffer, and his daughter, Dawn Shaffer. He is survived by his son Claude Woodruff Woody Shaffer (Wanda); grandchildren Steven Shaffer of Nashville and Katherine Booker (Dwayne) of Indianapolis, Indiana; and five great-grandchildren.

Visitation will be from 6-8 p.m. Friday at Woodlawn Roesch-Patton Funeral Home and one hour before graveside services Saturday at 11 a.m. in Woodlawn Memorial Park.
