GWENDOLYN BIRDWELL SHIPP
Deceased 2010-11-27 Age 87
Nashville TN

Gwen Birdwell Shipp died peacefully in her sleep on Saturday morning November 27 2010 at the age of 87. The daughter of James D. and Sara B. Birdwell who preceded her in death Gwen was a native Nashvillian who lived most of her life here. She cared tirelessly for her husband Henry R. Shipp in the years after he was stricken with ALS. Survived by children Rick Shipp (Mary Ann) Paco Shipp (Grace) and daughter Jan Shipp; 5 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren. From the age of ten Gwen knew that nursing was her calling and earned her RN at Georgia Baptist Hospital in Atlanta. She spent her life caring for others on the job and at home. Passionate about caretaking after her retirement she focused on helping the elderly delivering food and flowers to those who were sick or home bound and she served as a loyal volunteer with the YWCA of Nashville. She was also a faithful member of Woodmont Baptist Church and a member of the DFWS class who appreciated her presence in their lives. On Thanksgiving Day Gwen gathered with her family and enjoyed a bountiful feast. She spent her last days with her children and grandchildren and great-grandchildren for whom she had boundless pride and affection. In recent years her greatest pleasure was being the loving GiGi to her doting great-grandchildren. She will be greatly missed by her friends and family and all those whose lives she touched. Funeral Services will be conducted at 11:30 a.m. on Wednesday December 1 2010 with visitation prior from 10:30 - 11:30 a.m. at Woodmont Baptist Church. Interment will follow at Nashville National Cemetery. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to the ALS Association P.O. Box 40244 Nashville TN 37204; or the YWCA of Nashville and Middle Tennessee 1608 Woodmont Blvd. Nashville TN 37215. The family would like to offer sincere gratitude to NHC Cool Springs staff and to Carrie English and Barbara McCord for their loving and faithful care. MARSHALL-DONNELLY-CO

Staggs 67 was born October 7 1921 and died September 8 1988 in Crockett General Hospital. Coach Staggs. a native Nashvillian. was inducted into the Tennessee Secondary Schools Athletic Association Hall of fame in March of 1988. The Isaac Litton graduate was one of the best prep running backs in Nashville history. He twice led the city in rushing. Staggs attended the University of Mississippi then quit school to serve in World War II. After the War. he returned to Middle Tennessee State where he played football and baseball for two years. He captained the 1947 Blue Raider football team which went 9-1. That was the first team for legendary coach Charles Charles M. (Bubba) Murphy. Leonard was like a coach on the field." Murphy said last night. " He was a good smart athlete—a leader. He was a quiet boy not outspoken. and he had the respect of all the boys he played with. ~ He was a good coach too. He and (former MTSU player and coach) Jack Deere had some great games when Jack was at Pulaski and Winchester. Both were outstanding coaches. Coach Staggs was football coach at Lawrence County High School from 1948 to 1970 during which time his teams won 125 games and enjoyed 11 winning seasons with some of the finest teams in Midstate history. He also coached basketball for 16 seasons winning 354 games six district titles and four regional championships. After coaching Staggs returned to Nashville where he worked several years as a counselor at Tennessee Preparatory School. He was the son of the late Herman Calvin and Ethe Lodge Staggs. Survivors include his wife Grace McRae Staggs of Lawrenceburg; a daughter Lenna Rae Oiiive of Lawrenceburg; two sons Kenneth Staggs of Lawrenoeburg and Leonard (Rudy) Staggs Jr. of Nashville and six grandchildren.
