WILLIAM COEFIELD ADAMS

Deceased 2023-11-05 Age 96

Athens TN

William Coefield Adams (Billy) passed away at his home in Athens TN on November 5th 2023 at the ripe young age of 96 with his children at his side. Billy was born at home in Cedar Hill TN on August 28 1927. He graduated from Isaac Litton High School in Nashville where he was a standout athlete and All-Nashville baseball pitcher. He graduated from Vanderbilt University in 1950. Billy served as an aviator in the U.S. Navy during the last months of World War II. He had a long and distinguished banking career in Tennessee including serving as president of banks in Sweetwater Maryville and Niota. He served as president of the Tennessee Bankers Association and on the governing council of the American Bankers Association. In 1983 he was appointed by Governor Lamar Alexander as Tennessee Commissioner of Financial Institutions and had the unfortunate task of presiding over the largest bank failure in U.S. history (at the time) – United American Bank in Knoxville. He was respected and revered by co-workers and former employees and by many for his numerous civic and charitable activities. Billy had an amazing passion for life and a wide range of interests including music history sports joke telling hiking traveling architecture and landscaping – to name a few. He loved golf and reached his goal of shooting his age at 78. He often wrote poetry and could recite numerous poems by heart. In his later years Billy savored many simple pleasures such as sunshine hot tubs gin rummy junk food cocktail hour and cigarette smoking (his “vitamins”) – which he jokingly credited for his long life. He loved his family and was a beloved husband father to his two children and grandfather to his five grandchildren who knew him as “Pa”. Billy was preceded in death by his wife of 61 years Ann Sneed Adams father James E. Adams mother Ruth Matthews Adams Butler brothers James M. Adams and Don C. Adams sisters Mozelle Adams Core and Elizabeth Adams Ferguson and companion of several years Frances Graves. Billy is survived by his son Bill Adams (Allison) of Nashville daughter Annette Bradley (Doug) of Lynchburg VA. grandchildren Will and Rob Gordon Caroline Adams (Dan Hubbell) Camille Adams (John Karvonen) Nate Adams and a host of nieces nephews and cousins. ROSE MARY CANNON ANDERSON
Deceased 2019-01-07 Age 91
Gallatin TN

Rose Mary Cannon Anderson (Nana Rose) was born October 14 1928 and died January 6 2019. Preceded in death by father Charles F Cannon Jr.; mother Mary Elizabeth Key Cannon; brother Charles E. Cannon; sister-in-law Mary Wylie Cannon. Survived by daughter Elizabeth Lee Bailey (Walter) Goodlettsville TN; step-son Duane Anderson (Carol) Bakersfield CA; grandchildren Anthony Wayne Frensley Nathan D. Frensley Laura Bailey John Bailey (Amy) David Anderson (Jillian) and Lorie Chambless (Scott); beloved great-grandchildren Cody Frensley Brittney Frensley and Eli Bailey; niece Valorie Cannon Rowe (David); and innumerable children that she taught cared for ministered to and loved over decades of working at church and in local schools. Rose also considered the Cooper family the Heile family and the Davis family (and many others) to be like her own so we would be remiss if we didn't mention them here too. Rose worked at the DuPont plant in Old Hickory for 39 years until her retirement in 1987. Then she found new careers teaching in Mothers Day Out at First Baptist Church Hendersonville and later as a teachers aide and library assistant at Beech Elementary School and Madison Creek Elementary School. She closed out her working days although she never would have called it working by caring for her precious Thomas Heile from the time he was a baby until he started school. Rose was a faithful member of Long Hollow Baptist Church staying involved until her health prevented her from doing so teaching Childrens Sunday School and rocking her babies. She often said she always wanted every child to know Jesus loved them and that will be her legacy to all who knew her. As soon as you met her you saw the love of Christ and the joy of the Lord in her life and she let that light shine on everybody she knew even until her very last days. She was a prayer warrior and a great friend and the most wonderful mother a daughter could ever have. Rose never forgot a birthday or a phone number and she faithfully sent cards to all her friends on their special days. Rose will be buried among several family members in the historic section of Spring Hill Cemetery in a private service. Active pallbearers will be Anthony Frensley Nathan Frensley and Cody Frensley Don Cooper and Gary Davis. Honorary pallbearers will be Dan Heile Ben Heile Andrew Heile Thomas Heile Cale Rice Thomas Trotter; and members of MaryJo Mansfields Connect Group at Long Hollow Baptist Church. Visitation will be held in the Chapel of Long Hollow Baptist Church on Saturday January 12 2019 from 10 am until 2 pm when we will have a memorial service to celebrate her life was a life well-lived. Dr. G.B. Howell will officiate. In lieu of flowers the family asks that you make a donation to Long Hollow Baptist Church Mission Fund. And Rose would tell you to be sure to tell your loved ones today how special they are to you because we aren't promised tomorrow. We would like to express very special thanks to the nurses techs therapists and other staff at Vanco Manor Nursing and Rehabilitation Facility for the incredible loving care they gave to Rose in her final weeks. You all cared for my mother as if she were your own and I will never be able to repay the kindness and love you showed to her and our entire family.

PERRY J DALE JR

Deceased 2018-06-13 Age 91
Nashville TN

Perry Dale Jr. of Nashville TN passed away peacefully on June 13 2018. He was born in Nashville on November 5 1927. Perry is survived by his wife Donna Lampley Dale daughters Debby Dale Mason and Melissa Thompson (Mark) grandchildren Perry Dale IV and Kate Thompson and great grandson Perry Dale V. He was preceded in death by his parents Alberta and Perry Dale Sr. and his son Perry Dale III. Perry attended Isaac Litton High School and served in the U.S. Army from 1945-1947. He graduated from Vanderbilt University in 1950 where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. His high school and college ties led to lifelong friendships that endured throughout his life. For the next 57 years he was in the food brokerage and manufacturing business at Dale's Fine Foods commercial and residential real estate and investments and in entertainment at The Cannery. He retired for the second and last time in 2007. Perry was known for the trademark hats he wore and his gentlemanly demeanor. He had a great love for history maps and land that was born out of his family's deep ties to Nashville and Middle Tennessee. The Dalewood neighborhood was named after his family and their farm on Maxey Lane. His father grew up in Livingston TN and Dale Hollow Lake was named after his family as well. He loved the historic buildings that his family owned - GrandDale on Murfreesboro Road - and 112 Second Avenue North - home of Dale's Fine Foods - before they moved to the historic Fletcher Wilson Coffee Company building on Palmer Place. They later renovated that building and opened it as The Cannery. Perry instilled this love for history with his family and he could regale family and friends alike with stories about Nashville's past. Perry's love of history was equaled by his love of sports. He played baseball and softball in his earlier years followed by tennis and golf in his later life. He was a member of the Nashville Junior Chamber of Commerce a longtime member of Richland Country Club and the National Commodore Club. Perry's love of the Vanderbilt Commodores was well known among friends and family. He was a basketball and football season ticket holder for over 40 years and an ever-faithful fan. Perry cherished his role as Grannanny and Gey to his grandchildren. His family is grateful that he was able to spend time with his 6-month old great

Carol E. Morrow age 84 of Clarksville died Thursday November 3 2011 at Montgomery Care and Rehab. A celebration of her life will be held 1 p.m. Saturday November 5 2011 at McReynolds- Nave & Larson Chapel with Rev. Ancil Overby officiating. Visitation will be from 11 a.m. until the hour of service Saturday at the funeral home. She was born December 29 1926 in Gibson County TN. She attended elementary school in Bells TN. She was adopted by a loving family and moved to Jackson TN. In 1941 she moved to Nashville to attend Litton High School. She met and fell in love with Chesley Morrow. On January 14 1946 they married and moved to Florida. She also lived for a short time in Nashville where she attended Falls Business College. Mrs. Morrow has been an animal lover her entire life. Her husband convinced her to move back to their family farm in Woodlawn in 1963. Chesley promised her that she would have her own horse. Chesley gave her Lizzita as a housewarming gift. They were also surprised with another gift when Lizzita had a foal they named Taffy. Carol became actively involved with animal rights activism in 1970. She then became President of the Montgomery County Humane Society in which at that time survived on donations only. Her work with them was strictly volunteer. She also worked with the State Department of Education and in her spare time attended Austin Peay University. Over the years Chesley and Carol added to their family with a mixed terrier named Crocket and a Doberman named Greta along with numerous other animals they fostered along the way. The humane society elected her as their Chief Investigator for cruelty and neglect of animals. She investigated cases in Montgomery Houston Cheatham and Stewart counties. She was actively involved until 1999 when her husband Chesley was diagnosed with Cancer. At that time she stepped down from her position to care for him.

GWENDOLYN JONES STIDHAM

Deceased 2023-11-16 Age 96
Jackson TN

Gwen Jones Stidham died at home November 16, 2023. Born November 9, 1927, to Roy L. Jones and Willie Hardcastle Jones in Goodlettsville, Tennessee, attending local schools and graduated from Isaac Litton High School in 1945. After attending David Lipscomb College, she married Houston Smith Stidham on April 4, 1950. In 1951, she gave birth to a daughter, Lisa Kathryn who predeceased her. Following their move to Hendersonville in 1956, Charles Patrick Stidham was born in 1958 and William H. Stidham was born in 1968. Gwen was well known as a loving and devoted daughter, wife, mother and a nurturing friend to many, as well as a hard-working philanthropist. She was deeply involved in the creation of Nashville Memorial Hospital, Goodpasture Christian School, a trustee of Volunteer State Community College and a board member of the Association for the Preservation of Tennessee Antiquities (APTA). Her Christmas party for the benefit of Cragfont was legendary and one of the highlights of her life. Gwen was caring and fiercely protective of those she loved, taking many people under her wing through the years. Gwen was predeceased by her parents, R.L. and Willie Jones, brother R.L Jones Jr, husband Houston Stidham, daughter Lisa Kathryn Stidham and adopted brother, Thomas Gregory. She is survived by her two sons, Charles Patrick Stidham and William Houston Stidham and their “adopted brother” Gordon Adamski, all of Hendersonville, Tennessee. One thing her family is so proud of and would like to share with the world in order to provide hope and inspiration to others, Gwen was a breast cancer survivor, 55 years cancer free! Proof that it can be done! Services will be Saturday, November 25 at Spring Hill Funeral Home, 5110 Gallatin Road, Nashville, Tennessee 37216. Visitation 10am till 12pm. children. Her father Thomas Jefferson Webster took one of the most important paths that led African Americans out of poverty: he worked as a Pullman porter for the Southern Illinois Railroad. Between that job and a real estate business he operated on the side the family had enough money to send their academically talented daughter to Atlanta's Spelman College. She had graduated from high school in 1943 when she was only 15.

At Spelman Sarah Webster majored in English and history. She moved back to Nashville in the summer of 1945 however possibly because she had met her future husband Cyril Fabio II a dental student at Nashville's Meharry Medical College. She enrolled at Nashville's Fisk University and graduated in 1946 after just three years of college. In June of 1946 soon after her graduation she and Cyril Fabio were married.
