BETTY ANN BUNCH FORSYTHE

Betty Bunch Forsythe a lifelong Nashvillian who never met a challenge bigger than her desire to overcome it passed away peacefully May 28 2014 of natural causes. The third of three daughters of Dr. Ray C. Bunch and Elyza Alderson Russell Bunch she was born Nov. 9 1928 at Nashville Protestant Hospital. When there was no immediate sign of life she was wrapped in a towel and the name "Betty" was hastily scribbled on birthing papers by a nurse. A few minutes later she exercised her voice for the first time and let it be known she intended to be around a while. Betty who was to have been named Marlene in normal circumstances joined her other sisters Martine and Marcelle in routinely doing "doctor's daughters' duties" with their beloved father as he saw patients near the family's East Nashville home. Although a graduate of Ward- Belmont and Peabody she was more proud of her diploma from Isaac Litton high school. After a brief stint teaching in Nashville schools her innate talent for cooking and entertaining led her to Nashville Electric Service in 1958 as a part-time employee. In 1960 she became a full time employee as a home economist. In addition to hosting a local television show "Kitchen Corner " she spoke at high schools across Davidson County and taught thousands of young people how to cook and entertain with "clean safe and reliable electricity." In 1981 Betty became the first female manager at NES in her role as public and employee information manager and later as communications manager. She was appointed as an assistant to the general manager in 1990 the position from which she retired in 1993. Despite her managerial chores she always made time in her 35 years with the utility to help younger employees or those facing personal challenges. It is believed she co-signed more car loans in the history of the NES credit union than any other person her big heart unable to say no to a request for help. She was humbled by her role as the first female to chair the ESCU board. She also found time to help create the still-in-demand Nashville Cookbook. In 1982 she was one of six Nashville women to receive the National Women's Executive Award. Betty had many joys in life: traveling around the world entertaining and collecting decorative pieces. Her biggest loves though were her daughter Debby Dale Mason and her late son Perry Dale III. Betty and Debby explored the world together on numerous vacations and she was a routine fixture at the family businesses - the Cannery and Tisket Tasket Baskets - that Perry was part of. She was also very proud of her grandson Perry Dale IV. Betty was preceded in death by her parents sister Marcelle and her son. Surviving relatives include her daughter Debby Dale Mason; her grandson Perry Dale IV; her beloved sister Martine Bunch McKee in Atlanta and other beloved members of her family here in Nashville and in Virginia and Georgia. She is also survived by special friends Donna and Perry Dale Jr. Mary Ann Moore Woody and Dagny Stuart McMillin friends at NES/ESCU and friends and staff at Park Manor including Walter Wilson and Roy Dye. Those wishing to remember Betty may make a contribution to the organization of their choice or to Nashville Public Television (161 Rains Avenue Nashville TN 37203) or the Nashville Rescue Mission (639 Lafayette Street Nashville TN 37203); or just simply take a moment to tell a friend or family member about her. There was no one else quite like her. There will be visitation for family and friends on Wednesday June 4 from 4-7 p.m. at Marshall Donnelly Combs. A private burial will follow at a later date.

WALTER SCOTT CAIN MD

Walter Scott Cain M.D. beloved pediatric surgeon of Birmingham was born June 12 1928 and died September 2 2016. Upon retirement from The Children's Hospital of Alabama he was honored by his colleagues with a bronze memorial statue on the hospital grounds depicting his "helping hands." His parents were Byrd Douglas Cain and Margaret Cain. Survivors include a son Andrew of Aransas Texas a daughter Margaret of Atlanta brother Byrd of Williamsport TN and numerous nieces and nephews. Dr. Cain grew up in Nashville Tennessee. He earned his undergraduate degree at Vanderbilt University. In 1954 he received his medical degree from the School of Medicine at the University of Tennessee. His post-graduate training included appointments at Vanderbilt at University of Wisconsin Hospitals and at Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh where he completed his residency in pediatric surgery. For two years in the 1960's he was staff surgeon at Long Beach Naval Hospital in California with the rank of Lt. Commander. He has served on the faculty for the Department of Pediatrics University of Alabama School of Medicine and practiced at Children's Hospital of Alabama. Over the years Dr. Cain made important contributions to local national and international medical and surgical societies. He held leadership positions in hospital committees and his clinical research was published in numerous articles and surgical journals. More significantly the children he cared for their families and the residents and students he taught stayed in contact with him well after he retired. At his own expense and carrying his own surgical equipment Dr. Cain made periodic trips with other physicians and assistants to perform free surgery in poor third world countries. They often went to remote areas where there was no electricity; he recalled operating with only the light from a battery powered lamp mounted on his head. Dr. Cain's hobbies included raising orchids in his greenhouse oil painting and world travel. After retiring he studied art under celebrated teachers. There will be a private family remembrance and

GEORGIA MARIE HALL WELCH

Deceased

2026-01-12 Age 97

Franklin, TN

Georgia Marie Hall Welch, 97, of Franklin, Tennessee, passed away peacefully on January 12, 2026. A devoted wife, mother, and artist, Georgia's long and creative life was marked by love, family, and a passion for painting that she carried well into her later years. Born September 15, 1928 in Madison, she was the daughter of George H. Hall Jr. and Thelma Smith Hall. She grew up in Nashville where her father was an architect and served in the Army Air Corps as a pilot. During WW II he was stationed in Reno, Nevada where he was a flight instructor. Her years out west left a lasting impression on Georgia, who carried a lifelong affection for the mountains and sky. She returned to Nashville for her senior year of high school at Isaac Litton and attended Ward-Belmont College for two years, where her interest in art flourished. Soon after college, Georgia met Glenn Thomas Welch Sr. Their meeting was the kind of simple moment that turns into a lifelong story that began at a bus stop in Green Hills. Georgia was on her way to work at National Life and Glenn was attending Vanderbilt University. Glenn was smitten. They married in 1948. Georgia devoted herself to raising their four children, and as they grew older, she extended her care to others as a day care teacher at Bethlehem Methodist Church in Franklin. Later, she returned to National Life as the receptionist on the Executive Floor, a position where her grace and kindness made her beloved by all. Georgia continued her passion for art by painting murals throughout the Nashville area. Some of her art could be found at Christ the King School, Woodlawn Mausoleum, and Travel Inc. When Glenn retired, Georgia stepped away from mural painting, but never her art. Together, they traveled the world, Georgia with her sketchbook and small tape recorder finding inspiration for paintings that she would continue creating into her 90s. Georgia and Glenn made their home on a family farm, where the door was always open to family and friends. Their home became a gathering place filled with warmth. Georgia was preceded in death by her parents; her husband of 75 years Glenn, and her sisters, Dorothy Hall Crawford and Annette Hall Roberts. She is survived by her children, Glenn Thomas "Tom" Welch Jr., Cynthia Hall Welch, Susan Welch Heeney, and Sylvia Welch Evans (Barney). Her Grandchildren, Shea Heeney (Becca), Kevin Heeney (Jennifer), Georgia Evans Van (Josh), Rachel Evans Ingols (Alex), Logan Ayn Berlinsky, Gaelan Berlinsky and 5 Great Grandchildren. She has left us a legacy of love, creativity, and family that will continue for generations. The family would like to thank publicly the Staff at NHC Cool Springs and Caris Hospice for the grace and care of both of our parents in the last few years. In lieu of flowers, may we suggest donations to the Alzheimer's Foundation of America or the Brain Injury Association of America. Visitation with family will be held at Williamson Memorial, 3009 Columbia Avenue, Franklin, Tennessee, on Thursday, January 15, 2026, at 2 p.m.
