Deceased
2022-01-20
Age 80 Dallas
TX

Gale Alexander Gale Alexander Rucker was born July 16 1941 and died peacefully on January 20 2022 after a long struggle with dementia. Gale lived life to the fullest and blessed all that knew her. She was the fourth daughter of Roscoe and Edna Alexander of Nashville TN. Gale attended Isaac Litton High School and graduated from David Lipscomb College in 1963 with a major in Art and minors in History and Psychology the first ever in her family to earn a college degree. While at Lipscomb she was editor of an award-winning school yearbook (the BACKLOG) and was chosen a class favorite a Campus Beauty finalist and a national collegiate Who's Who. After college she left Tennessee for Texas to begin a 40-year career with American Airlines. Based in Dallas she held many positions with the airline including Flight Attendant grooming supervisor (yes that was actually a role in the 1960's!) and Supervisor of Flight Attendants. Soon after moving to Dallas she met the love of her life Hugh Rucker. After a (very) long courtship Gale informed Hugh that she was moving to San Francisco if he did not wish to marry her. The next day realizing he was about to squander the opportunity of a lifetime he got down on one knee and proposed; she accepted and they were married in April 1968. They welcomed their first child son Hugh in 1972. With the arrival of a longed-for daughter Rachel in 1975 Gale transitioned from flying to leading tours at the AA Flight Academy for 15 years. Having reared her two children she returned to flying in 1991 celebrating her 50th birthday while in flight attendant training school for the second time. She retired from flying in 2003. Gale had an unquenchable wanderlust traveling the world twice over and criss-crossing the United States innumerable times. Her AA employee travel benefits allowed her to travel to Europe Mexico Canada and other wonderful places on a whim. And she did! She loved searching for antiques all over Europe with friends and family relished great meals in foreign countries and never minded pausing for a refreshing drink in an English pub. Gale and Hugh found their church home at Preston Road Church of Christ. As a faithful member there for almost 60 years Gale taught Sunday school and lived her faith by welcoming and entertaining visitors and new members as an Elder's wife. She arranged wedding and baby showers church holiday parties and new member dinners evangelizing through hospitality as a consummate and sincere hostess. A steadfast proponent of education Gale was an active member of the PTA at Bradfield and Armstrong Elementary schools McCullough Middle School and Highland Park High School. HELEN ROSE BOHNENSTEIL OTTO

Deceased

2026-02-07 Age 84

Gallatin TN 37066

Helen Bohnenstiel Otto, age 84, of Gallatin, Tennessee, passed away on Saturday, February 7, 2026, at Alive Hospice in Nashville, Tennessee, surrounded by her immediate family. Helen was born on May 7, 1941, to Herbert Frederick Bohnenstiel and Katie Caldwell Newson Bohnenstiel. From the very beginning, she carried a spirited joy and quiet strength that would define her life. She lived a great and beautiful life — one measured not in titles or accolades, but in the hearts she shaped and the love she gave freely. As a devoted mother, she raised four girls Cheryl Otto Louvin, Cathy Otto Bruner, Roseann Otto Alexander and Paige Otto Nelson — each one strengthened by her example of resilience, compassion, and unwavering faith. Helen's home was a place of laughter, love and an open door for others. She poured boundless energy into her grandchildren and her one and only great-grandchild, lighting up every room they entered with stories, encouragement, hugs that lingered, and just enough mischief to make life interesting. Her love for them was fierce and joyful — the kind that leaves fingerprints on a soul forever. She found deep joy among her cherished knitting friends, a circle built on creativity, shared stories, prayer, and steady companionship. For Helen, knitting was never simply about yarn and stitches. It was about connection — about weaving people together in conversation and care. A woman of abiding faith, Helen lived what she believed. She was guided by compassion, strengthened by love, and anchored in gratitude for the people God placed in her life. Her favorite saying, "Make every day like it's your last," was not about urgency, but about presence — about holding family close, savoring the ordinary, and giving her whole heart to the moments that mattered most. Helen leaves behind a legacy of faith, love, and gratitude that will continue through generations. Helen was preceded in death by her parents, Herbert and Katie Bohnenstiel and by her brother-in-law, Bob Cummings. She is survived by Cheryl and Ken Louvin, Cathy Bruner, Roseann and Bill Alexander, and Paige and Paul "Is Awesome" Nelson. She is also survived by Dale Bruner, a longtime member of the family who remained special to her through the years. Helen is lovingly remembered by her sisters and brother-in-law, Vicki Cummings and Donna and Dennis Dickens. Her grandchildren: Kimberly Louvin ("Tailz"), Jonathan Bruner (Kate) Kelly Wentzel (Grant), Michael Bruner (Megan), Shelby Alexander (Cam High, spouse to be), Lou Alexander (Loren), Abbigail Nelson (T.W. Rose, spouse to be), and Aiden Nelson (Madeline Ziolkowski, spouse to be). Her great-grandchild: The one and only MJ Bruner.She is also survived by her devoted knitting friends, beloved nieces and nephews, cousins, and dear friends who were like family. A celebration of Helen's life will be held on Monday February 23, 2026. Visitation will be 10:00 am to noon, followed by funeral services at 12:00 noon in the chapel at First Baptist Church Hendersonville, 106 Bluegrass Commons Blvd, Hendersonville, Tennessee. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions, in Helen's name, may be made to Alive Hospice, 1710 Patterson Street, Nashville, Tennessee 37203 or online at Donate | Alive Hospice | Donations for Hospice Care. SUZIE BOWEN

Deceased

2026-10-02 Age Age 85

Suzanne Bowen Williams Ackert glided softly into her next dimension on Friday, October 2, 2026. She was our mother, grandmother, Sweet Mama and friend. Suzanne, an Atlanta girl, was born to Kathleen Gilbert and William Elwood Bowen on July 12, 1941. As a young woman, Suzanne married Robert W. Williams and their years together gave Suzanne the best miracles of her life: her two daughters, Cyndi Williams McLean and Sharon "Hey" Williams Sturkie. For a number of years, Suzanne and her family lived in Greenville, S.C., where she raised her daughters, worked for Community Bank, was involved in many volunteer activities and enjoyed spending time with many good friends and neighbors. In 1986, Suzanne took herself away from all she knew and moved to the city of her dreams-Charleston, S.C. There in 1988 she met Eugene Marshall Ackert, a handsome Michigan man who was an avid golfer, sailor and fisherman. They married and had many exciting adventures together, both on land and on sea. He passed in 2021 leaving a deep, loving, but lonely space in her heart. Suzanne, in her elder years, made her home in Winston-Salem, N.C. During her time in Winston, she found a home as a member of the Unitarian-Universalist Fellowship. After years of searching for a spiritual community that fit her needs, she found a diverse congregation, accepting of all, where she was welcomed with love and friendship. Suzanne lived a full life, although not an easy one. She was a foster child and knew little about her biological family. In 2000 she joined Ancestory.com and began an intense search to find out all she could about her genealogical family. Along the way she was fortunate enough to meet several of her first and second cousins. As a strong, independent gal with a can-do attitude, her smile and positive disposition made her fun to have around, with her delightful Southern voice recognizable across a crowded room! "Our young years," Suzanne often said, "are not of our own making or choosing; however, as we move forward, we can make our own future and enjoy a family of our choice!" Suzanne is survived by her two daughters, Cyndi McLean (Bill), of Charleston, S.C.; Sharon "Hey" Sturkie (Carter), of Winston-Salem, N.C. She is also survived by her talented, smart and much-loved grandchildren: Harry McLean of Charleston, Elisa Suzanne Sturkie of Chapel Hill, Katie Hill Sturkie of Winston-Salem, and Amelia Sturkie of New York City. Also surviving are her stepson Scot Ackert and his wife Leann of Charlevoix, M.I. and their extended family. In addition, she is survived by her chosen family: her Like-A-Son, Ben Larkin of Atlanta. G.A.; Foster sister Beverly B. Knox of Hermitage, T.N.; Vintage Group Sister Janie Brown Bridges of Simpsonville, S.C.; and her Like-A-Cousin family Curt and Caroline Batten and sons Raike and Hines of Winston-Salem, N.C. A celebration honoring Sweet Mama (Suzanne) will be held on Sunday, November 15th at Forsyth Country Club, 3101 Country Club Road Winston-Salem, N.C., from 2:00 – 4:00 p.m. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Unitarian-Universalist Fellowship of Winston-Salem, 4055 Robinhood Road, Winston-Salem NC 27106. True to form, this obituary was written by Suzanne herself.

CLASS of 59

John Sam Caldwell the curator of paintings and sculpture at the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art and a well-known advocate of contemporary art died on Sunday at Mount Sinai Hospital in Miami Beach where he had a vacation home. He was 51 and lived in San Francisco. The cause was a heart attack said Chelsea Brown the director of public relations and marketing at the museum. Mr. Caldwell was born in Nashville on Nov. 16 1941 the only child of Nathan Green Caldwell and Camilla Johnston Caldwell. His father was a Pulitzer Prize- winning journalist who wrote for The Tennessean. Mr. Caldwell earned his bachelor's degree from Harvard University in 1963 and a master's degree in art history from Hunter College in 1973. For the next three years he pursued graduate studies in 18th- and 19th-century American art history at Yale University. In 1975 he went to the Metropolitan Museum of Art as an Andrew W. Mellon Fellow and in 1977 he was named assistant curator of American art. Revived Pittsburgh International. Between 1980 and 1984 Mr. Caldwell contributed art criticism to the suburban weekly sections of The New York Times for Westchester New Jersey and Connecticut and in this period he became increasingly interested in contemporary art. Working with Mr. Lane he organized the 1985 Carnegie International a show that was widely seen as reviving interest in that 90-year-old invitational exhibition. He also acquired paintings by Anselm Kiefer and Sigmar Polke that were among the first major works by these well-known German artists to enter American museum collections. Mr. Lane who became director of the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art in 1987 named Mr. Caldwell curator of painting and sculpture in 1989. The program that Mr. Caldwell instigated for San Francisco was an astute mixture of underappreciated and high-profile artists. In the last year for example he assembled a retrospective of the works of Luciano Fabro an Italian Arte Povera artist who is not well known in this country and a survey of the work of the American artist Jeff Koons. He also organized a widely acclaimed retrospective of Mr. Polke's work that toured the United States in 1990 and organized an exhibition of younger artists including Sherrie Levine Martin Kippenberger Christopher Wool and Matthew Barney. Although Mr. Caldwell was sometimes criticized for his emphasis on European and New York art he and Mr. Lane were often credited with bringing new life and international visibility to the museum which is constructing a new building designed by Mario Botta in downtown San Francisco. Mr. Caldwell contributed to the design of the galleries in this building which is to open in January 1995 and was working on plans for the inaugural exhibition and the installation of the permanent collection.

Oklahoma City OK

Peggy Jean Gaineous Moon was born Thursday April 24 1941 and died Sunday May 19 2002 at the age of 61 years. Peggy was widowed. She had two children and 6 grandchildren. She worked in shipping and enjoyed travel especially cruises. She treasured the friendships she made at Litton. In December 2001 Peggy wrote: I have really enjoyed hearing from some of the classmates over the past couple of years and wish I could have been able to see some of them at reunions. Thank you for your e mails and prayers this last year. they have really helped. I still have good days and bad days. It does not seem as though I am doing very much but the next day I can really tell that I over did. Since I moved into the Baptist Retirement Center (in Okarche OK) I have met more people in 3 weeks that I met in a year so I know God has led me to the place He wants me to be. Sure wish I could see all of you and talk over old times. The last time I was in Nashville the area did not even look the same but I guess that is what change does for a town.

MARY VIRGINIA IRWIN RIDINGS

Deceased
2025-12-05 Age 84
Goodlettsville TN

Mary Virginia Ridings, lovingly known as Mama and Nana, passed away at the age of 84 on December 5, 2025, surrounded by the deep love she so graciously and generously gave throughout her life. She leaves behind a legacy of love, strength, and faith that touched everyone who had the privilege of knowing her. Mary is preceded in death by her parents, Tony and Virginia Irwin, and her little sister, Melba Faye Irwin. She is survived by her brother, Bobby Irwin; her sister, Judy Irwin; and her devoted husband, Ted Ridings. Her greatest joy was her family, and she is lovingly remembered by her four children—Jeff (Sharon) Ridings, Mike (Natalie) Ridings, David (Lynda) Ridings, and Christy (Robby) Ryan—as well as her 13 grandchildren (Luke, Bella, Tyler, Rachel, Ciara, Blake, Brady, Bailey, Austin, Sam, Chelsey, Colby, and Chanley) and 21 great-grandchildren, each of whom she cherished deeply. The most important things to Mary were faith, family, and fun, and she lived each day reflecting these values. Mary lived her life with a generous heart, unwavering faith, and a joyful spirit. She made everyone feel welcomed and cared for, offering comfort, encouragement, and a place at her table. Mary embraced her role as Mama and Nana fully, and her family will carry forward her traditions, her laughter, and the wisdom she freely shared. She delighted in cooking big family meals, decorating for holidays, and dressing up in her famously spirited and dramatic outfits, bringing joy and fun wherever she went. Her servant's heart also extended to her church, where she cooked Wednesday night meals, decorated for special events, and poured love into every act of service. Mary also had a love for antiques and enjoyed "junk shopping" with friends and reselling her finds at local Antique Malls. Mary was the matriarch of her family—their steady light, their encourager, and their home. Though she is no longer with us, her faith, her love, and her legacy continue in the lives she shaped. Well done, Mama/Nana. Well done, good and faithful servant. A funeral service will be held 12pm Tuesday, December 16, 2025 at Forest Lawn Funeral Home with Robby Ryan officiating. MARYRUTH MATLOCK WEIR
Deceased 2009-08-01 Age 65
Barnesville GA

Mary Matlock Weir of Atlanta GA. was born February 16 1941 and died on December 17 2006.. Burial at Matlock Cemetery in Benton County TN. In the early morning of December 17 2007 our beloved friend and colleague MaryRuth Weir died at Emory University Hospital. She was diagnosed with a virulent brain tumor last August. Along with her husband Ed Weir and their four children seven grandchildren and a vast array of family and friends MaryRuth walked into the unknown territory of cancer treatment and oncoming death with a deep calm and the assurance of the faith she had held all her life. On December 22 a large throng of friends and family gathered at Jubilee Community in Comer Georgia. After a service of worship prayer scripture and many songs MaryRuth was buried in a cemetery at the edge of a beautiful forest among friends from the streets from death row and from our several communities. The following is the eulogy preached at her funeral. Keep on loving one another as Christian sisters and brothers. Remember to welcome strangers into your homes. There were some who did that and welcomed angels unaware. Remember those who are in prison as though you were in prison with them. Remember those who are suffering as though you were suffering as they are. Remember your leaders those who spoke to you the word of God; consider the outcome of their life and imitate their faith. (Hebrews 13:1-3 7) MaryRuth died in the early morning hours of the 3 rd Sunday of Advent. Like Mary whose name she carried MaryRuth had been waiting and vigiling: at home in worship under the beam of radiation in the clinic at Emory Hospital and finally in the Intensive Care Unit. Well now that you mention it I think you could say MaryRuth had always waited and vigiled. So it is with pilgrims. Her name was Mary derivation of the Hebrew Miriam: Mary — meaning Rebellion. MaryRuth — Rebellion? Yes Rebellion. Ruth (again from Hebrew) means kindness. Kindness — yes! Her name is Rebellious Kindness— think about it. She was kindness. She was kindness in rebellion against all that was unkind. They met MaryRuth and Ed in the Vanderbilt University library. Exactly how they met in the library depends on whether you asked MaryRuth Ed or Eduard Loring. Many of us in this gathering know and understand something about "the expansive nature of the facts of history." Anyway they met they fell in love and they married. For 43 good years they practiced love they shared love they offered love they discovered and re-discovered love — the Radical nature of Love the Radical claim of love word only: Enough. She had had enough and on their lives. They began a pilgrimage. It's hard to realize that when they left Nashville Tennessee for Washington D.C. MaryRuth went to work for the CIA and Ed for the National Security Agency! He was a code breaker; she was a librarian. But the Radical Gospel claim of Love in their lives would not let them stand still. They became pilgrims. They searched for a way of life that would embody the love that lived in them and moved them forward. Over the years they bore children and loved each one to life: Dawn Rachel Bill and Sabrina. Their love overflowed and led them to Koinonia — reconciling community. Intentional Christian community. Disciplined community. Radical Gospel practicing community. Justice-seeking community. Agitating movement building community. Community: seeking racial justice, an end to war and the abolition of the death penalty. Don Moseley remembers how community members raised their eyebrows suspiciously when these two showed up wanting to join the Koinonia Community — from the CIA and the NSA?! But join they did and vocation for MaryRuth and Ed began to narrow and focus. On to be among the founders of Jubilee Partners Community and another mission: welcoming the displaced and the uprooted nation-less brothers and sisters. Welcoming strangers on this good land entertaining angels again and again. Her love overflowed the boundaries. In Sumter County and then in Madison County some 40 more babies came into her loving arms —children displaced from their own families into state foster care. And each child found a respite a place of love and kindness with MaryRuth and her family. Love moved them again: on to found New Hope House. MaryRuth and Ed and Sabrina were blessed and sent out from worship in this very room at Jubilee seventeen years ago. New hope for the families and friends of death row. New hope for the condemned and their families so very alone in courts of condemning laws. And there at New Hope House their love and MaryRuth's rebellious kindness made a home. She welcomed Joe Brunet wed to Dawn. She welcomed Mari Ohta wed to Bill. Then with suitcases packed and ready she welcomed each beloved child: Taro Shogo Jesse Nicholas Grace Marie Miriam (aha! Another Rebel!) Brendan. What a joy the children were every day to this kind grandmother this Kind Rebel! But her love was never to be confined to the strictures of biological family alone. She believed ever more deeply that her faith in Jesus the Executed Middle Eastern Jew pushed her — shy quiet MaryRuth who never ever sought the limelight who preferred always to work behind the scenes. Her Radical love pushed her ever farther into her name which became her destiny: to actively Rebel against the cruelty the profound un-Kindness of Execution and the institution of the Death Penalty. She carried the sorrow in her great and kind heart and in her hand a clipboard and a stack of cards. “Have you signed a card to ask for a moratorium on the death penalty in Georgia? Well I just have one right here and a pen and you may use my clipboard. I would like to take it with me now.” Day after day in front of the Capitol in church in meetings at demonstrations on street corners even through the car window at stoplights: Stop the Death Penalty. Agitate and cry out for a moratorium on executions. Rebel for the sake of kindness and love. But death came knocking too soon. Too cruel is our loss. We all began our deep grief journeying with her at the end of the summer as it wore on to the fall. But MaryRuth the Kind Rebel took on a distinct radiance. She was never afraid. She fought to live she wanted to live but she was never ever afraid to die. But then back to ICU and the early hours of Advent MaryRuth had been in labor for a long long long time. Rachel and Ed had worked heroically as her primary midwives. But she knew it was time for the labor to be done and time for the Great Birth to proceed. It had been many hours since she had spoken a word but with her last strength she pushed back the mask that had been pushing oxygen into her weary lungs and she said to Ed — her beloved Butch — and Ed knew it was true. She was weary. She was spent. She had struggled long and with great courage and contagious peace. But her labor was done and she was not afraid. Perhaps she was even eager in a way to take the next long step. And so the mask was removed. And we sang and wept and prayed and laughed and talked. She breathed for another five hours or so and then she was done. She left us — as she had lived among us — way behind the scenes out of the limelight no fanfare. Her last word was to her Ed. She said “Enough.” She knew and trusted that he would help her on her journey as they had faithfully helped each other for 43 years.She leaves it now to us the people of the Resurrection people of the Movement for Justice and Human Dignity. She will live — in her beloved Ed in her beautiful children and much loved grandchildren. She will live in each and all of us — her community — as we take up her mantle. And her deep and abiding faith in the God of Love is ours to share. MaryRuth —Kind Rebel — you will live as we move and struggle toward a Moratorium on the Death Penalty (and it will come). You will live as this cruelty is finally abolished for all time (and it will be). You will live as we welcome strangers and entertain angels in our own homes (may it always be so). You will live as the lion lies down with the lamb and war is no more (and yes peace even in this world of hideous and unceasing warfare will come). You will live as we remember those in prison as though we were in prison with them (we will remember and remembering we will act). You will live as we take up your mantle and your faith (ah may we take it up each day). You will live MaryRuth Kind Rebel — you will live! Murphy Davis is a Partner at the Open Door Community. Carrying MaryRuth’s ashes Ed Weir with their children and grandchildren led us in a procession to the graveyard at Jubilee partners.

JOSEPH VANCE RUSSELL
Deceased
2024-11-30 Age 83
Nashville TN

Joseph Vance Russell, 83, beloved husband, father, grandfather and respected business and civic leader passed away peacefully on November 30, 2024, surrounded by the love and presence of his family. He was born on January 20, 1941, in Nashville. He was preceded in death by his parents, John C. Russell and Frances Vance Russell and his brother John Russell. Joe is survived by his wife, Anne Lowry Russell whom he called the love of his life, and his children, Dara Russell (Mike Bussard), Canyn Russell, Rebecca Russell Howard (John A. Howard III) and his grandchildren Warner Dickson, Laine Russell Dickson, Mary Claire Russell Dawson, SarahAnne Dawson, Elizabeth Scott Dawson, John A. Howard IV, Russell Vance Howard, and River Abigail Howard and a beloved brother in law, Ken Lowry (Diane) and a host of nieces and nephews including Kate Lowry Coble (Neely Coble IV), Mary Kelton Coble, Kristen Lowry Blackard (Chad), Greg King(Scarlett), Derek Wilkinson, Serena Wilkinson, Teresa Ferguson, Tracy Barreiro (Efraim) and many more. Joe embodied hard work, leadership, and a passion for business. A graduate of Isaac Litton High School and the University of Tennessee in Knoxville with a degree in Business and Finance, Joe began working as a young boy with an early morning paper route. While initially learning about the principles of banking and the stock market from his father, Joe discovered his interest in global markets, investing, and formulating structures for business success. This interest grew into a love of finance, and he began navigating the complex global dynamics of footwear production and distribution. Joe started his career in the International Footwear Division of Genesco. Seeing opportunity in this market, Joe founded his own footwear company, Elan Imports with Paul Cahn of St. Louis in 1976. The partners named their new company after their wives, Elissa, and Anne, and built an international business as wholesale footwear suppliers in the worldwide mass market sector. Under Joe's inspiring leadership, Elan Imports expanded throughout Asia, Europe, South America, and Australia and played a vital role in global footwear manufacturing. His engaging personality and social skills partnered well with his gift for mathematics and visionary entrepreneurship. Joe was a calculator with feet. Elan was a top supplier of footwear to Walmart and many other national and international retailers for decades. The company became Elan-Polo upon entering the Asia markets. Joe also served as Chair of the FDRA, Footwear Distributors and Retailers of America. Joe traveled the world extensively throughout his career but always preferred to be at home with his wife and family. His solution was to take them with him as much as possible. His early days in India and other countries were spent manufacturing woven leather fashion footwear for popular prices and discount retailers and provided an education he could not obtain in any business school. His travels took him to many areas of the world that were still undeveloped at that time leading to many stories about practices, people, products, and facilities that would become the basis for conversations for his entire remaining career. He learned the unstated points of manufacturing in various countries that can only be learned from experience. He happily shared those experiences with friends, colleagues, family, and strangers whether they wanted to hear the details or not. He also felt it was his duty to add his own narration of "Slum Dog Millionaire" in the theater by offering additional details when a movie did not fully describe life as he had observed it there. Not everyone in the theater appreciated the free portion of the movie but Joe was undeterred. Joe's career in international business was defined by vision, problem-solving, and storytelling-always with a deep respect for colleagues and partners. More recently, Joe launched a domestic manufacturing footwear company bringing jobs back to the United States. This company continues to grow and flourish today. Beyond footwear, Joe invested in many diverse ventures, acquiring hundreds of partners along the way. He co -founded Joseph V Russell & Associates, an investment holding company, and further developed many entrepreneurial opportunities with friends and partners in multi-family residential and commercial construction, real estate development, auto insurance, health care, banking, retail footwear and other retail concepts, storage facilities, surfboards in Australia, high volume fashion shoes in Brazil, athletic shoes in China, and a myriad of other opportunities he helped bring to reality. He sincerely loved the challenges and the possibilities of making dreams come true and mentoring colleagues in the process. He felt a duty to his partners to treat them respectfully as he would expect to be treated fairly and honestly and he applied those standards as he helped others develop, assess, problem-solve, and adjust in their various ventures. Joe's favorite collaborator, however, was his wife, with whom he shared a lifetime of partnership. Joe was by any measure a consummate salesman. With bright blue eyes, humor and a caring, inquisitive personality, he could sell anything. He enjoyed a dry wit which sometimes had to be explained, and he referred to himself as a "shoe peddler." He was humble about success and a true entrepreneur always looking for the next idea and venture. Joe was never without an entertaining story from some destination around the world. His reputation and leadership skills are legendary based on a practical leadership style of empowerment and accountability. He loved problem solving and the bigger the problem, the more exciting it was to solve. He rarely came up short. His influence extended beyond the workplace as he saw potential in people and mentored many through insightful guidance toward professional growth. Joe was honored as Master Entrepreneur of the Year (SE) by Ernst & Young, was recognized annually as a "Top 100" Business in Nashville and was a graduate of Leadership Nashville. He was a proud Boy Scout who earned his Eagle Scout award at an early age and was presented with the award of NESA Outstanding Eagle Scout. He served on the Middle Tennessee Council of Boy Scouts as board chair and was honored with the Silver Beaver Award. He was a generous supporter of the Boy Scouts and kept every badge, pin, and medal that he earned. He was also the recipient of the Brotherhood Award presented by the National Conference of Christians and Jews in New York City. He received many honors and awards for his service and support to both nonprofit and for-profit organizations. He was a long-time member of the deTocqueville Society of United Way of Middle Tennessee and, along with his wife, was distinguished with a National Excellence in Leadership Award for fundraising by United Way of America. He was one of the founders of Ensworth High School and a generous patron of the arts in Nashville in his long support of The Nashville Symphony and in fundraising for the Schermerhorn Symphony Hall. He sponsored many exhibits for the Frist Center for Visual Arts. He was a philanthropic supporter of Cheekwood, Alive Hospice, The Andrew Jackson Foundation, Tennessee Performing Arts Center, Nashville School of Law, Tennessee State Museum and co-chaired the Tennessee Waltz with his wife. He has also been a generous supporter of Metro Nashville Public Schools, Harpeth Hall School, and Montgomery Bell Academy. Joe served on the Maddox Foundation Board, the Core Civic Board of Directors and he chaired the Vanderbilt Heart Council and supported research scholarships for Vanderbilt Hospital. He served as chair of the Nashville Chapter of the Red Cross and provided scholarships for the University of Tennessee in the College of Business, and Bridge Scholarships at Belmont University as well as a residence hall. His final commitment was to build a Chapel for the new Frist College of Medicine at Belmont University. He was very excited about his final project under construction. He served as a member of the Belmont University Board of Trustees for 22 years where he was on the executive committee, finance committee, search committee, investment committee and secretary of the Board. In his final year, he reluctantly moved from active trustee to emeritus trustee. He was honored for his service with an Honorary Doctorate from Belmont in 2023. He loved the outdoors and conservation. He was an avid hunter and a member of the International Order of St Hubertus. He was a member of SIBF, Society of International Business Fellows. He enjoyed hiking, especially in the mountains of Colorado with his youngest daughter every single summer and walking with his buddies whom he loved dearly. He enjoyed traveling, fishing, and golfing with his wife and friends and loved to entertain. He was a member of the Small Business Leadership Council, the Chef's Club of Nashville, and the Chattooga Club of Cashiers. He loved snow skiing and was a member of the Beaver Creek Club. He was also a member of Royal Poinciana Club of Naples and Belle Meade Country Club. He was an active member of Forest Hills Baptist Church and a member of the Brotherhood Class which he loved. The family wishes to thank the staff of Woodcrest at Blakeford for their compassionate care especially Marsha Probst, Kenyatta Wade, Coty Lavendar and other nursing staff; Hannah Page for her services, care and arrangements and to thank to the doctors and staff at Vanderbilt Hospital and Dr. Emily Kurtz and Dr. Sarah Flury, and the Alive Hospice Team each of whom were angels. The family is so appreciative for the wonderful caregiving, dedication, attention, love, and companionship of our new honorary family member Brandon Gleaves (i.e., James), who tolerated the ups and downs and lived to tell the story of the last two years. Thank you all. You are special.

Paw had a fifty (50)+ year career as a Butcher/Meat Manager in the grocery store industry. Paw and Nannie were married for forty-seven (47) loving years. They had a true love others only dream about. At a very young age Paw was smart as a whip and even smarter as the years passed. Some of Paw's passions included travel history music family and crossword puzzles. Simply put he loved people! He was gifted with an impeccable ability to recall "all" his life stories as far back as age two (2). We were the fortunate ones who sat across from Paw listening as he spared no detail with each story. They were fascinating stories and most all included a life lesson. He literally never met a stranger. Those of you that have had the "privilege" to have Paw in your lives in some way shape or form know first hand the impact this man has left on your heart.
