He worked hard, played hard, and impacted many through his knowledge and generosity. Doug grew up in Nashville in the Inglewood area. He was blessed with a large family that included more aunts, uncles, and cousins than we could count. He carried on his family traditions of large family gatherings with his own family. The Hardcastle home has been well known for birthday parties, pumpkin carvin' parties, school parties - a welcoming place to gather for a special occasion or no occasion at all. Doug was an accomplished man. He was a graduate of Tennessee Technological University's College of Engineering where he received his Bachelor's Degree in Civil Engineering, and he served his country as an officer in the Army for 3 years. Growing up in East Nashville, Mr. Page met the love of his life through mutual friends in September of 1965. They decided in July of 1966 to get married and start a family; they would welcome two beautiful daughters and four amazing grandchildren over the next 51 years. Mr. Page was described as a fun-loving and kind man. He never met a stranger and loved a good joke; at family get together, he and his brother loved to tell jokes and tease the nieces and nephews.
